Thousands Witness Dedication

Fort Hamilton.

Several thousand persons attended yesterday the formal opening of a Knights of Columbus but at Fort Hamliton. The building, equipped similarly to those at the larger army reservations in the country and the camps abroad, was presented to the post by John Duffy, chairman of the Long Island Chapter of the Knights of Columbus

War Camp Activities Committee, and accepted for the soldiers by the Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton, Protestant chaplain of the post and pastor of the Clinton Avenue Congregational Church,

The idea of this block party originated with the Strong Piace Social Club, an organization of young men and women, but when the preliminary plans were well under way the elders of the neighborhood became interested and virtually took charge in order that everybody in the district might contribute to the success of the affair.

Permission was obtained from the brough authorities to rope off the "place" at each end and a small admission fee was charged. Once within the block every visitor—and there were many hundreds of them—got an opportunity to enjoy himself in many ways and to do his bit in swelling the supply of smokes for soldlers. A special in vitation had been extended to men of the army and the navy, and both branches of the service were well represented.

in August, 1914, and that they have plainly exposed their intention to prosecute future wars by the aid of such barbarities.

The American Defence Society, as everybody knows, is waging an anti-German campaign from coast to coast, and the spirit of the terrific indictment they have prepared against the whole Teutonic nation is by way of being a reminder to Americans that the leopard has not changed his spots. "The Crimes of Germany" is the title of the pamphlet to come from the press soon.

Proof From Boche Soldiers.

The preface contains this comment by Sir Frederick Cook from the English edition:

The evidence against Germany is to be found not merely in the sworn statements of eyewitnesses and of her victoric fitting to reprisale against American war prisoners in Germany in order to force this country to return to him his pet to return to him his pet to return to him his pet to will seems and propaganda directors.
